

FOR AUTHORS

1. TRIBOLOGIA publishes only original papers written in English that have not been previously printed in any other journal, not containing commercial and marketing items, and that focus on the problems of friction, wear, and lubrication.
2. Authors submitting the manuscript of the paper on the TRIBOLOGIA website www.t.tribologia.eu in the Index Copernicus International Publishers Panel system should first attach a copyright statement that will allow the manuscript to be processed.
3. After a preliminary assessment made by the Editor confirming the scope of the paper within the area of interest of TRIBOLOGIA, the manuscript is reviewed (reviewing procedure is given on the website of the journal).
4. The authors receive 2 independent reviews made in double-blind system and should introduce the necessary modifications according to the suggestions of referees within 7 days.
5. The Editor is responsible for the correctness of the language and reserves the right to abridge text, change titles, and put necessary changes in the terminology without the agreement of the authors.
6. A manuscript should be prepared in Times New Roman in the following order:
 - First names and surnames of authors (11 points) and their affiliations in the footnote (9 p.);
 - The title in English of the maximum of three lines (14 points), the title in Polish (12 points);
 - Keywords in English (9 points);
 - Abstract in English: 8-10 lines (9 points);
 - Keywords in Polish (9 points);
 - Abstract in Polish: 8-10 lines (9 points);
 - The text in English with clear division into sections;
 - References (10 pkt.).
 - The main text: 10 points, single-spaced; two-language captions of figures and tables: 9 points; and, formulae: 10 points.
7. After acceptance of the paper for publication, the text must be translated into English and submitted in the ICI Publishers Panel system in addition to the contents of the manuscript in a Microsoft Word document format. Papers are restricted 12-14 pages including figures and tables. Drawings should be prepared in Corel Draw, Illustrator, or Excel. They should be saved in a vector form with the possibility of correction. Tables and drawings are to be placed in the text and also sent as separate graphic files in the editable form (xls, xlix, PDF, cdr, ai), JPG or TIFF files at 300 dpi quality.
8. Formulae and equations should be inserted into the text by means of MathType editor, Times New Roman 10 points, and numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals.
9. References including the word literature are to be made in the order of citation in square brackets as follows:
 - a) Periodical: author's name/s, title of paper, periodical, volume, year, pages;
 - b) Book: author's name/s, title, editor, and place and year of publication.